

Rudy Koch, 2010 President

Rudy Koch is Broker & Co-owner of Prodigy REALTORS®, Inc., a small independent residential real estate brokerage business he founded in January of 2005.

Rudy has served the real estate profession on a local, state and national level since 1986. He is a past President of the Fort Wayne Area Association of REALTORS®, a group that named him REALTOR® of the Year in 2004. Rudy is a current Director for the National Association of REALTORS® and serves on their Business Issues Committee.

Rudy is very involved with the Fort Wayne Habitat for Humanity, serving on their Board of Directors from 2002 to 2008.

Rudy received his Associate Degree in Professional Accounting from International Business College (Fort Wayne).

Rudy and his wife of 32 years, Kathy, live in New Haven. Rudy enjoys reading, golf and his three grandchildren: Mackenzie, 7; Samuel, 5; and Grady, 2. His son, Greg, lives and works in Boston; daughter, Amy, her husband Brad Rupp and family reside in Fort Wayne and his youngest daughter, Jennifer, and her husband, Jesse Wells, live and work in Oklahoma City.