June 2019

While Indiana home sales fell in June, prices rose for the 91st month in a row.

“These price increases are absolutely a result of low inventory and high demand. There’s simply not enough desirable housing stock to satisfy consumer needs,” said 2019 Indiana Association of REALTORS® President Brian Thompson of Bloomington.

“Be ready to move – that’s the best advice Realtors can give to our clients these days,” continued Thompson. “For sellers, the advice is literal. A quality home is going to sell quick. For buyers, the advice is about preparation. Buyers need to come to the home search ready to make an offer, which means knowing their budget and having their financing ready to go.”

REALTORS® expect current market conditions to continue until the pace of new home construction picks up. Interest rates, employment, and wages remain key to healthy housing markets, as well.
